Chemistry at a glance; a study in molecular architecture. No. 1. 60c. H. B. Finkle, 131 Lexington avenue, N. Y. The dominant feature of the work is the elaboration and simplification of graphic formulae, by which the character and relation of substances are set forth with increased force and clearness. We hope to see this work completed, and believe it should meet with wide use as a text book.

The Youth's Companion, Boston, is replete each week with instructive and entertaining literature—a treat for the old, as well as for the young, folks.

Outing: 239 Fifth av., N. Y., comes to hand each month, full of out door life and recreation, short stories, etc.

The Ladies' Home Journal: Philadelphia, is rich with hints for making the home life pleasant.

Gardening, Monon building, Chicago, 24 numbers a year for $2, is an excellent journal for amateurs, now in its 5th vol.

The American naturalist, 518 Minor st. Philadelphia, gives an epitome of the scientific activity of the day.

The bulletin of the Torrey botanical club, Columbia University, N. Y., gives working botanists an indispensable help in its monthly index to recent literature relating to American botany.

Amateur Gardening: Springfield, Mass. An illustrated monthly, the only horticultural publication in New England, and it goes to all parts of the New England states. Any advertising agent will take your order for advertising in it, or you can send direct to the publishers, Amateur Gardening Co., Springfield, Massachusetts.

Other valued exchanges:—The American florist, Chicago; Florists' exchange, New York; Vick's magazine, Rochester; Strawberry culturist, Salisbury, Md. &c.

Garden and Forest, Tribune building N. Y., under Prof. C. S. Sargent, is one of the most valuable of the weeklies in America. $4 a year.

The Garden, 37 Southampton street, London, is the most valuable of the foreign horticultural journals to reach our table, and each weekly number contains a finely colored plate of some flower.

The Delineator, woman's favorite magazine, for December, contains beautiful colored fashion plates, descriptions of dress modes and winter millinery, and general and literary matter pertaining to the holiday season. 7 W 13th st. N. Y. 15c.

America's successful men of affairs: an encyclopedia of contemporaneous biography, edited by Henry Hall. The N. Y. Tribune. 2 vol., $20.00 Volume 1 describes the careers and characters of nearly 1000 of the men most prominent in finance and practical pursuits in the metropolitan district of New York. Vol. 2 is devoted to the master spirits of the business world in the United States at large. The examples of success in this work should prove a strong incentive to the capable youth of America to make the most of their lives, to begin in youth to cultivate habits of thrift and thoroughness, and to lay the sound basis of character, energy and integrity, without which a lasting success is impossible. Wealth is the main element by which the success of these men is estimated, but as a concise history of the millionaires of our day, and the origin of their wealth, the work is worthy of careful study.

Danger Signals

More than half the victims of consumption do not know they have it. Here is a list of symptoms by which consumption can certainly be detected:—

Cough, one or two slight efforts on rising, occurring during the day and frequently during the night.

Short breathing after exertion.

Tightness of the chest.

Quick pulse, especially noticeable in the evening and after a full meal.

Chilliness in the evening, followed by Slight fever.

Perspiration toward morning and

Pale face and languid in the morning.

Loss of vitality.

If you have these symptoms, or any of them, do not delay. There are many preparations which claim to be cures, but Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption has the highest endorsements, and has stood the test of years. It will arrest consumption in its earlier stages, and drive away the symptoms named. It is manufactured by the Acker Medicine Co., 16 and 18 Chambers St., New York, and sold by all reputable druggists.
